

Favorite Chang Yu

During his time as a member of the Constitutional Council and a member of the Political Yuan in Beijing, Zhang Bishi often accompanied one or two people. When dining at a restaurant, he would happily greet the waiter and say, "Young man, give me a bottle of Changyu brandy and another bottle of red rose wine." After filling up the glass, the young man would usually ask the waiter with a smile and humor, "Young man, have you ever tried this kind of wine? I have never tasted such a good wine in the world before - unparalleled good wine! Come and try it!" He insisted that the waiter finish a full glass before leaving satisfied. Perhaps all the waiters would not know that the person sitting in front of them was the "big boss" of Changyu Distillery.

Chang Yu did not disappoint those who favored him. He won a gold medal at the 1915 Panama Pacific International Exposition, adding glory and color to his country along with many excellent Chinese products. At the award ceremony, Zhang Bishi's excitement was beyond words and he also expressed heartfelt words to inspire the Chinese people.
